Even as He chose us in Christ, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless in His sight, even above reproach, before Him in love.

For he planned in love for us to be ADOPTED as His own children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the purpose of His will.

We wish to thank the Women of the Talk of Tulsa Show Chorus. These women put on an amazing show, on November 19, 2005. They introduced CPO, during the performance, and presented us with a generous check from the proceeds of the tickets. We want to especially thank Candice Chonka, one of our volunteers, who suggested that we be the recipient!! We just got the news that they have chosen CPO to be the 2006 recipient, as well. I hope you will all set aside November 18, 2006, so that you can attend. You will not be disappointed.

Words seem so inadequate to express our thanks to Jennifer Emmons, for having served as our Transportation Coordinator for almost 20 months! This position requires a daily commitment to arranging rides for the young women in our program. Many of them do not have cars, and need to get to counseling, doctor and attorney appointments, Support Group, church, and other CPO events. Despite having a baby and pre-schooler, enduring a very painful surgery and recovery period, Jennifer was always exceedingly kind to each girl who called. When she could not find someone to drive, she often would drive the girl herself. Jennifer, we thank you and honor you for your selfless love in serving. You are awesome!

CHERYL SAID

My heart is full of gratitude to God, as I write this. He has done, once again, some amazing things. I am so grateful for His intervention in adoption situations that threatened to be interrupted. Despite circumstances that seemed insurmountable at times, He orchestrated the formation of many new "forever families." I am, continually, in awe of the work that He does in the lives of the girls He sends to us. Does each girl have a life-changing experience and turn her life around? Unfortunately, no. But, God always reminds me of the many who have, and the good seeds that have been sown. We receive letters and e-mails from young women who left us as rebellious adolescents, who were not "done" doing things their own way. They tell us that one thing that was said by a CPO Volunteer or Host Family stayed in their minds, and eventually caused them to embrace a Godly life style. Those letters cause me to weep tears of joy. Please know that your involvement in CPO is not an "accident." You were destined, by God, "for such a time as this." To the girls in our program, you become God with skin on. Please accept our thanks and His, as you continue to minister. May He bless you, abundantly, as you serve with your time, your love, and your finances. We could not do what we do, without your help.

In His Service,

Cheryl

As you thanked Him for your children
Each and every one
You realized with six
You felt your count was not done.

You asked Him through prayer
Kept Faith and Believed
You knew that He heard you
As you softly said "Please."

You patiently waited
Prayed every day and night too.
But He had already picked him
To give just to you.

Every night before bed
You sent your prayers up to Heaven
"I would love to" He said
Make your new count now seven.

Your prayer now is answered
Jesus gave you a son
A Little Blessing for you
To show everyone.

All the love that you have
So deep in your heart
It now is complete,
A family no longer apart.

A small branch to be added
To your family tree...
Next to: Michael, Samuel, Isaac,
Aunah, Abby... and Emily.

You two are amazing
Dean and Jeanette
Tucker is perfect for you
I have no regret.

(I love you both and your whole family. I'll forever be blessed. Love Always, Kristi)
